Hey Zino,

You know, I wanted this to be more than a "happy birthday" message — I wanted it to feel like you.

Warm, intentional, a little chaotic in the best way, and filled with love that doesn't always need to shout to be heard.

This magazine is a small piece of what you've built in the people around you — the laughter, the late-night talks, the calm you bring, and the spark that somehow always finds its way back into the room when you walk in.

As you flip through these pages, I hope you see not just pictures or words — but reminders of every quiet moment that made life feel fuller because you were part of it.

So, here's to the light you carry, the stories you've written in all of us, and everything beautiful still waiting ahead of you.

With all warmth,
Kachi

For being a light in human form.
For showing that gentleness can be strong, and that warmth is its own kind of power.
For all the moments you've made special.

Behind the Screens: Our Chat Highlights

LETTERS TO ZINO

“There are people who walk into your life quietly, without noise or announcement, and somehow end up becoming a part of your story in ways you never planned for. Zino is one of those people for me.

There’s something about her energy calm yet alive, thoughtful yet unpredictable that always feels real. She doesn’t just exist in moments; she shapes them. Every conversation, every laugh, every time she goes off on one of her unfiltered tangents... it’s like a reminder that authenticity still exists in a world full of filters and facades.

Zino has this rare kind of warmth that sneaks up on you. You don’t always realize how much she means to you until you catch yourself smiling at something she said days ago, or remembering how she made a simple day feel special. She’s stubborn sometimes (she’ll definitely argue this), but even that has its charm because behind it is someone who stands her ground, knows her worth, and refuses to settle for less.

You learn from her not in the lecture way, but in the quiet way life teaches you through people who matter. She reminds me that connection doesn’t always need grand gestures. Sometimes it’s just about presence, understanding, and that small space of honesty two people can share without needing to explain too much.

Zino, this is your page, a little reflection of how deeply you’ve been felt and how much of yourself you’ve left in the lives of those who care about you. You’re rare in the best way. The kind of person who deserves to be celebrated not just for what you do, but for who you are.” — Kachi “Zino, Happy birthday. I kept typing, deleting, typing paragraphs that felt too big for my thumbs, too small for what you mean to me. Every draft got scrapped because none of them fit the space between us. So here’s the short version that still took forever: You make the ordinary feel like a gift. I’m lucky to know you. Have the best day.

With Love,” — Hush

“Happy Birthday, my sister from another mother! You already know you’re more than just a friend — you’re family.

Thank you for always being real, for laughing with me, crying with me( na lie o 🤔 )and for being that ride-or-die I can always count on.

I’m so proud of the woman you’re becoming, and I pray this new year brings you endless joy, blessings, love, and success. You deserve nothing less! I love you endlessly, sis! ❤️” — Oke

“Happy birthday to my beautiful best friend. I love you soooo much and I’m wishing you the best birthday ever. I pray God’s protection and love for you always. I always thank God for bringing us together; words can’t describe how much you mean to me. You have been the best thing that has happened to me, I found friendship and happiness in our friendship. There’s never a dull moment with her. May all your dreams come true. I proclaim Jeremiah 29:11 today in your life (“For I know the plans I have for you,” declares the Lord, “plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future”). Always believe in this scripture even in your trying times. If you ask me to describe EWOMAZINO, I will tell you: Zino is my best friend, Zino is love, Zino is prayerful, Zino is a very happy soul, Zino is very dramatic, Zino constantly shows me that I am not alone, Zino never gives up, Zino is a smiling girl, Zino will never judge me, Zino is always by my side. It’s almost unbelievable the amount of things we have in common. She brings so much comfort into my life, and I know I can trust her with absolutely everything. Thank you. You know I love you. Once again, happy birthday. Psalm 118:24 – This is the day that the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad in it. Enjoy your day. – Melody “Zino is very reserved and doesn’t speak too much. She’s the perfect tag along and easy going friend.

She doesn’t have to do too much. A very peaceful person to have around. Happy birthday my pretty friend. You have the most beautiful smile and I pray nothing takes away your smile ever” – Fejiro

“Happy birthday Zino my love. My smallie. Always so sweet and supportive. I pray this new age brings you fulfillment, blessings and happiness. I promise not to let our streaks die again 🥰 Have a wonderful year my sweet girl” – Rukky “Zino, my girl! You’ve been such a steady and beautiful part of my life from 100 level till now.

You have this quiet strength and warmth that speaks louder than words, always there, always true. I’m really grateful for you and everything we’ve built and shared over the years. Wishing you a year that feels as soft and full as your heart. Happy birthday, love ❤️” – OJ

Happy birthday Zino. You’re such a rare gem, you’re calm, thoughtful and genuinely caring. I truly value the peace and warmth you bring to everyone around you. May this new year bring you joy and everything good in life. Better choice of men I pray 🙏, a very intentional man. You deserve nothing else. Have a beautiful new year. – Ese

Reasons why we love

ZINO

She's calm, kind, always smiling freely with everyone and knows how to always express her feelings. She's caring & she's extroverted
— Melody

Zino is such a very calm person. She runs along with everybody. She's always short of words, that's the kind of person she is. She doesn't talk too much & cause she doesn't say much, we don't know much about her but she someone that flows with everybody.
She's a very good listener & can listen to you.

She's kind, quiet, beautiful. Zino doesn't keep things in her mind for so long. She forgives easily

— Oke

— Ese

Zino is one of the calmest, warmest souls I know. She's gentle but strong, reserved but deeply present. She's the kind of friend who shows up quietly but fully, with so much love and loyalty. There's a peace she brings wherever she is, a true definition of warmth and grace

— OJ

No one fully understands Zino but there is one thing for sure, she is always always smiling. I don't think I have seen Zino vex self. Zino is that "quiet but I still want to be among people friend". Zino will ask for your advice and still ends up doing what is on her mind 😞. But she is still a sweet girl and very unproblematic, yet she stresses us out with her situationships

— Nyore

Zino is calm, grounded, and easy to talk to. She has this way of making conversations feel light, even when they go deep. She's fun, thoughtful, and always shows up when you need her, that kind of quiet consistency that says a lot without many words.

— Lukachi.
